WANT NEW STATION.

Burlington People Wait Upon The Vermont Public Service Commission.

Burlington, June 25.—The aldermanic committee, consisting of Aldermen Barnes, Cowles and Murphy, appointed to confer with reference to a new union station for Burlington, yesterday waited upon Messrs. J. W. Redmond, S. Holister Jackson and Eli H. Porter, the public service commission, laying the proposition before them today. The necessity of a new station was emphasized by the committee and it was pointed out that a desirable location would be at the foot of King street in the vicinity of the Champlain telegraph company's wharf. The public service commission listened to the proposition with interest. It will be the aim of the aldermanic committee to interest the Commercial club and citizens generally in the project for a new depot.
